

I believe in and care about democracy for all citizens. I oppose the deregulation of media ownership. I urge a vote to keep the current rules in place to curb media consolidation. Deregulation will lead to media monopolies which would be detrimental to the public interest and the peoples right to information.